MISSING PAGE

ORIGINAL DOCUMENT MISSING PAGE(S):

/

SECRET

3. ☐ Mr. J. G. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called to indicate that the Committee had just released the hearing on ☐ and that he was being hard pressed by reporters wanting to know the whereabouts of ☐ Mr. Sourwine wanted immediate advice on how he is to handle these inquiries. After consulting with ☐ and Mr. Houston, I informed Mr. Sourwine that ☐ was, with certain necessary restrictions, a free agent and was traveling in Europe and that as a ☐ he had, in fact, been accorded citizenship ☐ Mr. Sourwine thanked us for this information, saying that he could easily handle the pending inquiries with it and said that he would indicate that ☐ was traveling in Europe, ☐ ☐

4. ☐ Representative Jonathan Bingham was a guest for breakfast with the Director. See Memo for the Record.

[large redacted block]

5. ☐ Met with Bob Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, who indicated there did not appear to be any time during the remainder of this week when the Chairman could meet with the Director.

SECRET